Additional solutions

Building project teams

A combination of multiple services

Building teams or creating multiple HR positions amidst a transformation programme? We support larger projects combining the search of multiple profiles and interim management solutions.

Integrated interim management & search projects

A transition to cover the lead-time of a search

It can take a few months before an Executive or Senior Manager can effectively start in their new role. When launching a search project, we integrate an interim solution to offer a seamless transition.

Connecting with HR expertise

Camario, connect me with an expert

With our extensive network, we can connect you with an expert in virtually any field of HR. A customised solution to gain external advice. Connect with an expert for a day, over lunch or even for panel meetings around a specific subject.

Start-ups & Greenfield

HR as organisation architects

We have supported various start-ups in their scaling process, building their People & Organisation (HR) teams from the very first person to an early HR team. With our holistic view on HR we can provide you with guidance and advice; and customised solutions.

Our solutions recognised by tiers

We have been nominated each year since 2014 in the category: "Best Executive Search & Recruitment Company" In 2019, Camario won the special jury prize: "Best Excellence Recognition Award"
